FAIR, ECTOR COUNTY
COLISEUM

There is a tent just west of Building G which is the creative arts building. Best access is to come in the north gate off of 46th street but we will have fair board members at most gates to help direct.

When at the Permian Basin Fair, stop by Building G to see the Creative Arts exhibits. Bernie Sedate has 155 of his paperweights on display, about half of his entire collection. His wife, Jayne, is showing nearly 30 unique room boxes and doll houses from her extensive collection.

Texas Pledge

pledge allegiance to thee,
Texas, one state under God, one and indivisible

ABOUT THE PERMIAN BASIN FAIR

The Permian Basin Fair and Exposition began in 1975, making 2008 the 33rd anniversary. Currently the Fair is the largest annual event in the Permian Basin. The purpose of the Fair is to provide a venue for quality family entertainment and a showcase for local talent. Annually between 60,000 and 70,000 people from all over the Permian Basin attend the 9 day event.
